Oceanico FALDO COURSE

Course Information

Designed by Nick Faldo, with strategic play in mind, this course demands careful positioning to score well. Rocky outcrops meandering water features, views of the distant mountains and orange groves define its character. The course opens with a testing uphill par 4, offering a number of “risk reward” opportunities. The downhill, par 5, fourth encounters a meandering water feature, which comes into play on three of the front nine holes and two of the inward. Mastering the massive par 5, thirteenth, descending, with the wind behind, will demand consistent shot making all the way to the green. After leaving the high ground to the west, the eighteenth brings the chapter to a close with a magnificent par 5.
